DEDICATED TO Mrs. Maria DeSousa

"Kind, caring — the best teacher I ever had."

Kasey Beauvais

"A wonderful friend."

Mrs. Lynda Tripp

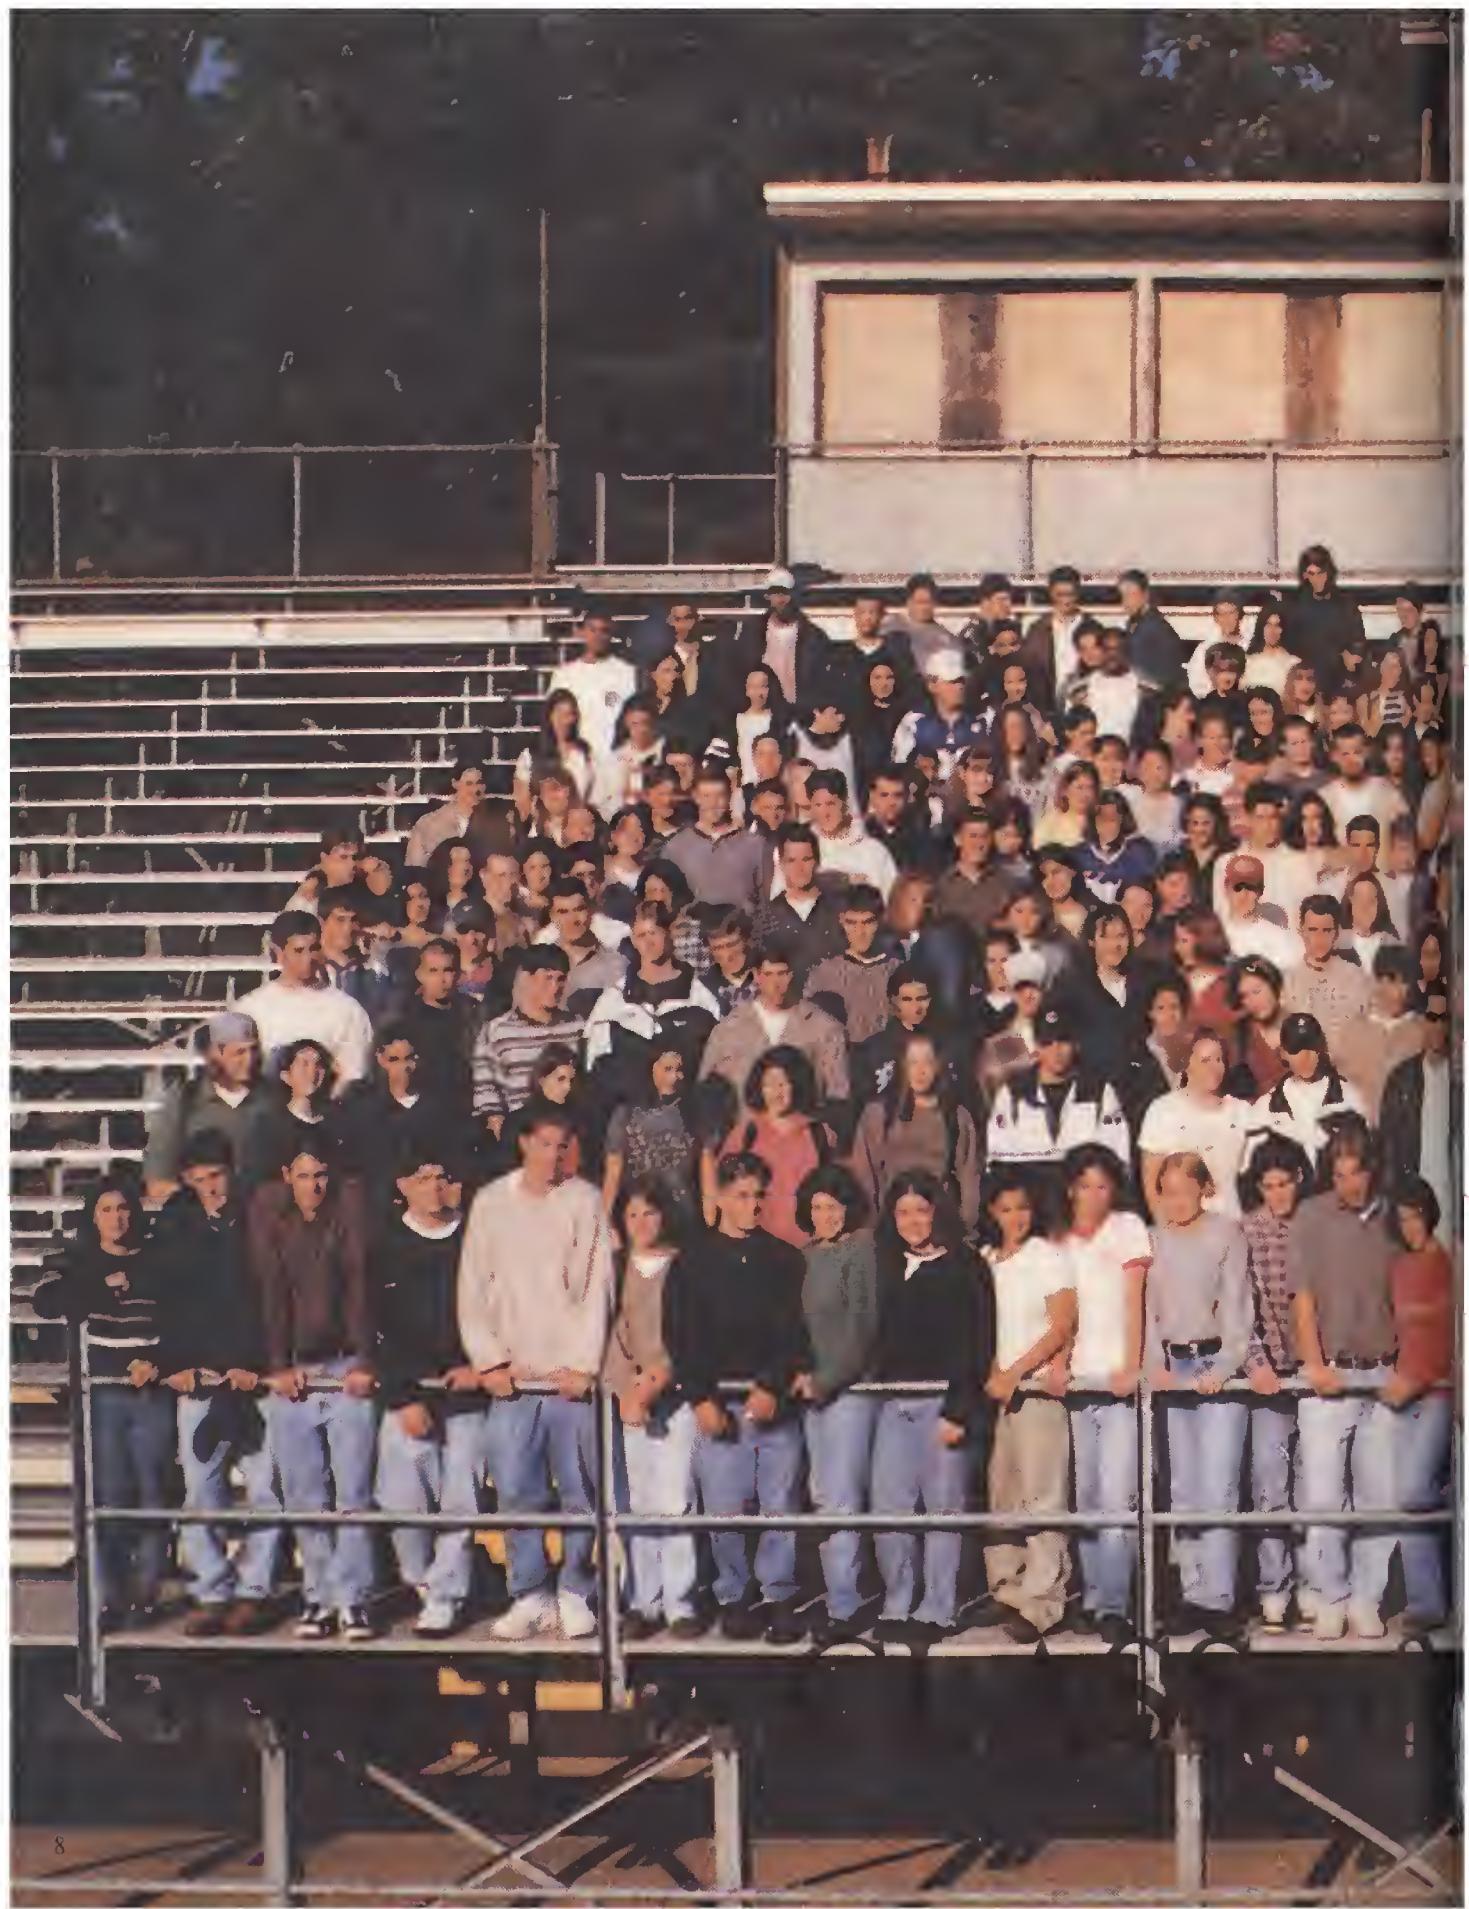

"I love her and I've never even had her."

Dominique Gonyer

"She is patient and always takes the extra time to help you. Every student deserves to have her."

Monica DeSousa

Thank You

FACULTY

Administrators

"Congratulations! You should be proud of the accomplishments you have achieved during the past four years. We, the faculty, are confident that you are prepared for whatever path you choose in life. It is our hope you will continue to be a lifelong learner."

Patrick Jackman
Headmaster

"A Taunton High School diploma provides tangible recognition of your academic accomplishments during the past thirteen years. The Taunton High School staff acknowledges your achievements and eagerly anticipates your continued success in all future endeavors. I have enjoyed sharing the past four years with you and extend my sincere congratulations to you and your families as you celebrate this significant accomplishment."

Barabara Masterson
Assistant Headmaster

"Congratulations and good luck to the Class of 1997. I wish you well."

Joseph Hurley
Associate Housemaster

"I wish the Class of 1997 good health and happiness. For myself, I wish I could be a part of Taunton High forever; I will always be a part of me."

In Ten Years . . .

Natasha Mulcahy will be a crash test dummy for GM.

Kara Borden will be tearing up the professional field hockey league.

Smitty and Lovell will still be best buds even if they are thousands of miles apart.

Taunton High will have murals on every wall.

Tanya and Jessica still won't have a ride anywhere.

Milena will have a leading role on General Hospital.

"Pizza Val" will still put the change on the counter.

Jon Pfeil will no longer get blamed for Smitty's hijinks.

Stephanie Wapenski won't remember which high school she graduated from Coyle or THS.

The field hockey team still won't have a trophy in the case.

Taunton High will clean up only for accreditations.

Nick Mitchell will still have red eyes.

The Girls will still be having dance parties.

Monica will own a brand new Mercedes Benz.

Emily Sousa will shut up.

Mrs. DeSousa will be too tired to use her hands to talk.

Justin Gordon will still have a big, red perm.

Carl Lincoln will be installing carpets.

Buckley will still be asking Paul for money.

The band will have a reunion in the Azores.

Heather Colcord will be a "G" in South Central L.A.

Nate Darling's novels will be found in libraries across the country for all Americans to enjoy.

Class Will

I, Kara Borden, leave my brother Bruce my parking spot in the jock lot.

I, Chris Gates, leave Mr. Almeida and the Drama Club all my love and gratitude for teaching me how to shine.

I, Jaime Mascarello, leave Tatum Johnson a smooth ride over the bridge.

I, Brian Smith, leave next year's baseball captain the sheer agony of dealing with Mattos on a daily basis.

I, Monica DeSousa, leave Tatum Johnson every dodge, strength and drive left in my field hockey stick. My defense will always be on the field with you.

I, Talia Bourque, leave Dr. Hanna's office to the luckiest junior girl.

I, Justin Gordon, leave my biology book from the past three years to upcoming classes.

I, Emily Sousa, leave Amanda DePonte a moment of silence in memory of "Chocolate Thunder."

I, Stephanie Wapenski, leave the center field fence to some other unlucky outfielder.

I, Paul Ventura, leave my heart and soul to all my friends.

I, Kara Majkut, leave hours and hours of frustration and stress to next year's yearbook editor.

I, Ashley Taylor, leave my brother Kent the ability to get a "B" in Spanish regardless of what you do.

I, Jon Pfeil, leave my huge running shoes to fill and also my opponents in the dust.

I, Dominique Gonyer, leave my tuba to someone else who can't shut up.

I, Nate Darling, leave THS with my head up high and looking towards the future.

I, Matt Buckley, leave my sister Molly a new pair of sneakers to walk to school in.

I, Jessica Andrade, leave any student on the five-year plan, the "will power" to accomplish and achieve the goal of graduating.

I, Laurie Jusseaume, and I, Carla Tanguay, leave Kristen McGonigle our spirits.

I, Sarah Zurawel, leave Mrs. Fairbanks all of the Integrated Math lectures and meetings.

I, Christine Borges, leave the Camel Hard Pack T-shirt I never received to anyone who wants it.

We, the class of 1997, leave THS with millions of everlasting memories.
